

Disaster Recovery

INFO GRAPHICS

An Italian Cloud Provider with more than 16 years of experience in the ICT sector which provides SaaS, IaaS, PaaS and Cloud Consulting through its own 6 European Data Center.

Causes of disasters

The causes are many and have different shapes:

1 in 5 business ( 20 %) suffer a disruption every year.

Last downtime event

Almost half of the companies (44%) had an outage in the past 3 months and over a quarter (27%) had an outage in the past month.

Failures impact on Business Continuity

of companies which experience a failure will go under in just over a year of companies which lose their data will shut down within 6 months.

Cost of downtimes

Downtime cost is significant: the data show the estimated loss of money and people due to the failures.

$366,363

per year

Cost of the lost productivity due to the downtime for each company.

$500,000

per incident

Median cost per incident.

127,000 000

persons-hours annually

Employee productivity loss due to IT downtime,

63,500

persons per year

Equivalent of people being unable to work for an entire year because of downtimes.

25%

of companies rely on cloud storage as part of their Disaster Recovery Plan.

keep backups in only one location, typically a single, physical site.

59%

BENEFITS OF CLOUD

The top benefits of using cloud computing for backup and Disaster Recovery.

20% of cloud storage users are able to recover from a site disaster in 4 hours or less.

Only 9% of non-cloud storage users can say the same.

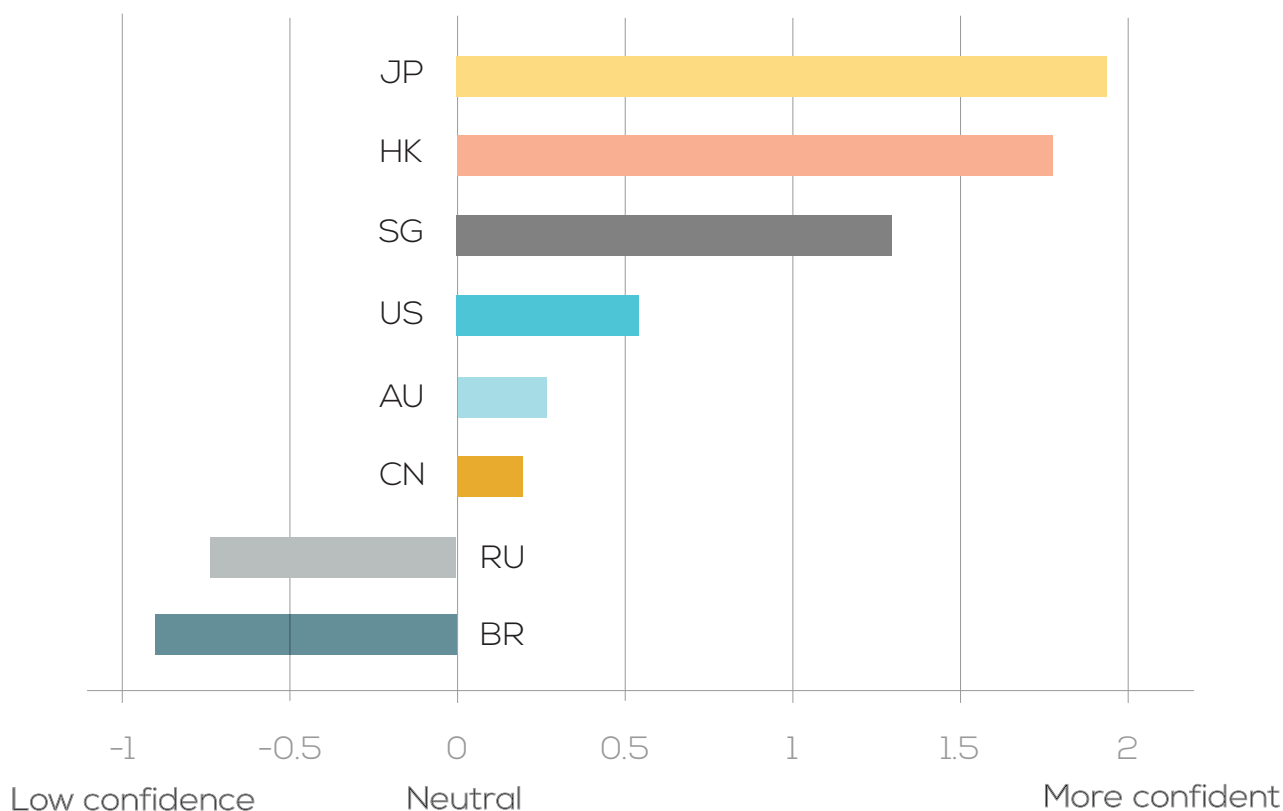

A survey have examined the level of confidence on Disaster Recovery solutions of companies all around the world.

Confidence levels around the world

The survey include United States, Australia, Japan, Hong Kong, Singapore, Russia, China and Brazil.

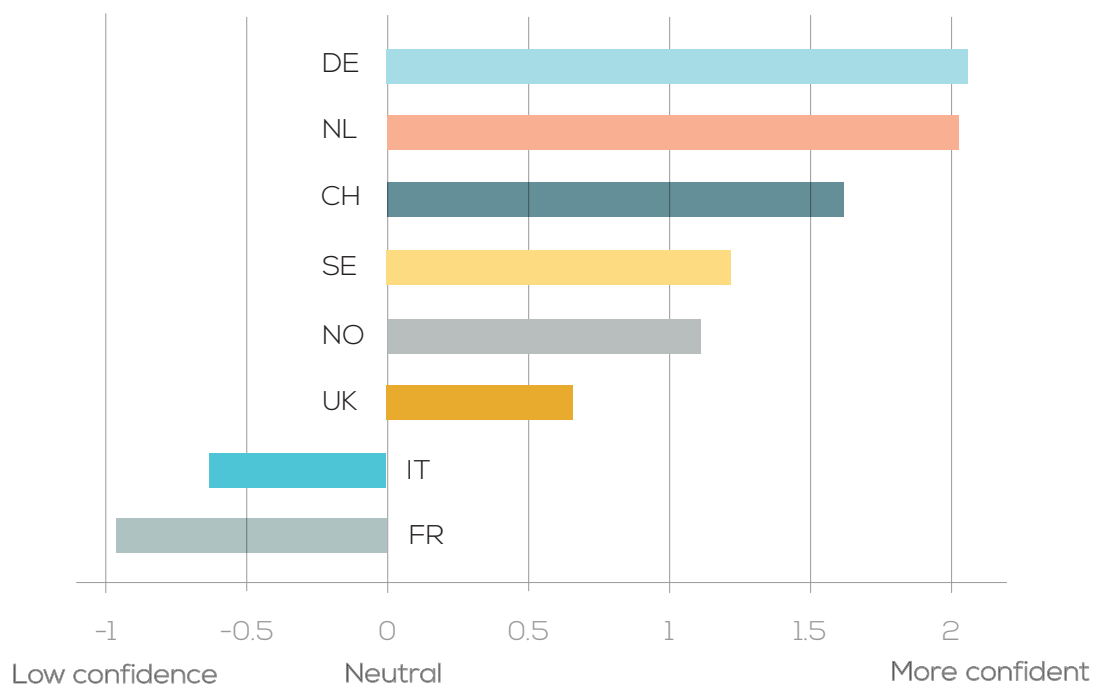

Take a look at the European situation.

Confidence levels in Europe

The research involve Germany, France, Italy, Netherlands, Switzerland, Sweden, Norway and United Kingdom.

Via Malta 36/15,
Turin, 10141 ITALY

+39 011.198.368.63
info@disasterecovery.cloud